

We preserve community history by telling our stories at public events, creating art to be seen in our community, designating community historians that not only preserve but educate.